

City Semester Internship Program Options

	The Philadelphia Center www.tpc.edu	The Washington Center www.twc.edu	Chicago Programs www.acm.edu/chicago
Program Focuses or Strengths	Emphasis on students' personal development. A broad range of internships are available - particular internship strengths include: advertising, arts, arts management, education, finance, communication, community outreach, law, psychology, PR, social work, wealth management	Government, Politics Some programs offered: Advocacy, Business and Management Global Trade and Regional Integration International Affairs Law and Criminal Justice Media and Communication Political Leadership	Entrepreneurship entrepreneurship, communication, economics, business strategy Arts: creative process, fine arts, performing arts, music, creative writing Social Justice: politics, civic engagement, ethnic studies, social justice, urban sociology/anthropology
Program Size	45 - 60 students per semester	500 students per semester	30 -35 students per semester
Sources of Credit	2 credits: Internship 1 credit: Elective 1 credit: City Seminar	2 credits: Internship 1 credit: Elective 1 credit: Portfolio	1 credit: Internship 1 credit: Core Course 1 credit: Seminar Course 1 credit: Independent Study (like a Hanover directed study)
Total Internship Contact Hours	350 or more	400 or more	160 total
Housing	Students learn to find own apartment with TPC guidance	Apartments are assigned	Apartments are assigned in 2 - 3 neighborhoods
Roommates	Choose own roommates	Roommates are assigned	Choose a roommate from the 4 -5 others who are assigned to the apartment.
Finding an Internship	Students find their own internship with TPC guidance at the beginning of the program, using their network of approximately 800 sites and evaluations from past TPC interns.	Students write internship request statement, related essay and resume, and 3 internship options are found for them. Students have phone interviews with the 3.	Internships are arranged by CP staff who contact students prior to semester to start the process. Over 350 sites possible. Locations are typically confirmed by first week or two of program.