

Using O*Net for Résumés

O*Net provides excellent insight as you tailor your résumé. You'll be able to identify the skills that specific jobs require and get a list of their individual job tasks to help you find effective wording as you highlight your related qualifications.

Step 1.

- Click on www.onetonline.org
- Type the job you're targeting.

Step 2.

Select the best match from the list.

Step 3.

When you select the job you are targeting, pay special attention to these sections at the beginning:

- The introductory sentence or paragraph and
- "Tasks."

Step 4.

Next, get an expanded tasks list:

- Select the "Details" tab
- Expand the number displayed.

This will provide you with a more specific list of tasks, in descending order of importance, and will identify which tasks are core (performed regularly) vs. supplemental (undertaken less frequently).

Step 5.

Save the Tasks Table using XLSX link above and print out your results using Excel.
