

Jacob M. Odulio

Profile

- Capable individual with strong skills in problem-solving and critical analysis
- Proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- Able to program in Python
- Punctual and ambitious with dedicated work ethic

Education

Bachelor of Arts, Hanover College, Expected Graduation: May 2019

- Chemistry Major
- Philosophy Major
- GPA: 3.89

Work Experience

Guest Services Attendant, West Baden Springs Hotel, West Baden, Indiana (2015-2017)

- Managed guest relations from arrival to departure
- Fulfilled any special requests received from guests
- Guided small tours of historic scenery

Research Fellow, Hanover College, Hanover, Indiana (2017)

- Conducted novel organic chemistry research of halogen bond donors
- Handled synthesis and characterization of novel organic compounds of interest
- Gained practical problem-solving skills and research methods

Research Fellow, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon (2018)

- Conducted novel organic/quantum physical chemistry experiments
- Gained experience with Bruker and Varian Nuclear Magnetic Resonance instruments
- Responsible for synthesis and photophysical characterization of organic compounds of interest.

Leadership Experience

Hanover College Peer Mentor (2018)

- Guided 20 college freshman through their first semester
- Planned lessons and assignments for weekly meetings

Employee Trainer, Madison 6 Infinity Theaters, Madison, Indiana (2018-Present)

- Trained general employees in guest relations
- Instructed new employees on necessary technology and operation procedures.

Organizations

Member of the Hanover College Ultimate Frisbee Club (2015-Present)

Member of the Sigma Chi (2016-Present)

Member of the Hanover College Pre-Law Club (2017-present)