Activities

Benjamin Templeton Scholar (2015-2019)

This intensive scholarship program requires attaining leadership positions within the school, at least 40 hours of service per year, high academic standards, several group projects involving social justice issues, and the promotion of acceptance for diversity on campus and within the Hanover community.

Kaleidoscope Club (2015-present): Treasurer

This college club discusses current events in relation to social justice issues, promotes cultural diversity, and explores and celebrates different ways of life. The executive board plans club meetings and events, including an authentic Luau and a mental health series.

Indiana Student Education Association (2016-present): Treasurer

This state-wide association, a branch of the NEA, helps teachers develop professionally through conferences and education-related service projects.

Service Trips

Such trips include Liberty, Kentucky (Summer 2013, Spring 2015) with a focus on community outreach, Downtown Cincinnati (Summer 2014) with a focus on poverty, and North Carolina (Winter 2018) with a focus on hurricane relief.

Political Activism

Such activism includes a day-long Insights Retreat for homelessness awareness in Louisville, Kentucky (2015), Women's March in DC to protest poor treatment of women, people of color, individuals with disabilities, and environmental negligence (2017), and community outreach events in accordance with KKK rallies (2017 and 2018).
